

CONDITIONS OF CARRIAGE

(Passenger / Baggage)

1. Passenger/baggage carriage are subject to these Conditions of Carriage ("Conditions"), which are accepted by passengers, who will obey lawful instructions from the commanding pilot ("Pilot") and crew.
2. Passenger(s) boarding the aircraft declares to be fit for flight and assumes the risks inherent to flight, and if medically unfit in the sole discretion of the operator/crew may be removed from the a flight/denied the flight.
3. Carriage of passenger(s) are at the risk of passenger(s), which they accept.
4. Mozambique is a party to the Warsaw Convention (1929) and may be subject to the Montreal Convention (1999), which governs international air carriage, including liability/liability limits.
5. Passenger(s) indemnify and exonerate the carrier/operator, its members/directors/shareholders/associated entities/employees/servants/Pilot(s), against claims/damage/loss/injury (direct, indirect or consequential), prior to, during flight, embarkation or disembarking, extending to dependents, estates and/or any third party.
6. No goods will be loaded on the aircraft to place any flight at risk, including firearms and prohibited objects.
7. Misbehaving passenger(s) in the sole discretion of the operator/Pilot/crew, threatening the safety of other passengers, or the Carrier's personnel, may be removed from the flight.
8. Passenger(s) accept, that applicable aviation laws apply and are incorporated hereto.
9. Seatbelts must be worn during the entire flight.
10. Passenger(s) and baggage weight limits apply, and excess baggage may be refused or carried at additional charge, if space and weight permits
11. Flights may be delayed, rescheduled or cancelled due to weather conditions, technical issues or safety concerns, the carrier not liable for costs resulting therefrom.
12. Passenger(s) indemnify and hold harmless the carrier and its personnel resulting from their own negligence, and/or breach of these Conditions and/or misconduct.
13. These Conditions and flights are governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of Mozambique.
14. Passenger(s) declare that they fully understand these conditions of carriage, presented in English.